Today, digitising invoicing is essential to a business’s ability to grow. When companies are just starting out, invoicing is pretty straightforward. It’s when the volume of customers increases that it starts to become a challenge. While this may sound daunting, it starts with a simple switch to e-invoicing. For ambitious SMEs, this practical and user-friendly course is a must, as it combines the decades of know-how and resources of the ICC Academy, Mastercard, Basware and Xero to help SMEs improve their day-to-day business operations.
